The Most Holy Trinity

By Fr. Mike Reinhardt

This Trinity Sunday we celebrate the deepest mystery of our faith, a God who, being three persons in one Godhead, can, in His own being, manifest and embody a love so deep, so rich, so expansive that it gives rise to God's desire to share that love through creation and by which He, and He alone, is worthy of all our worship and of the first-fruits of our love.

It is a love that is characterized by total self-gift, of the persons of the Trinity to each other and of God, particularly in the flesh and blood of the Son, to His creation. We are invited into the life of the Trinity. Our days here on earth are a preparation for the fullness of our participation in God's life in heaven. It begins sacramentally with our baptism and confirmation, through which we are adopted into God's family and given a full share of the Holy Spirit.

We most often invoke the Father, Son and Spirit at the beginning of our meal prayer, and it is mostly merely rote. Let's begin to think about what we are doing. In His name (as His child and in our baptismal appointment as priest, prophet and king) we are blessing the food with His power and grace. In His name, we are receiving into our bodies the gift of food blessed at our request by our God. It is worth meditating on what is happening and how we ought to act every time we pray "In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." So much is happening!

But the most essential move of the life of a Christian who is leaning into the life of the Trinity is Mary's fiat. Let it be done to me according to thy will. I'm thinking primarily not of her first fiat at the Annunciation, but of what is called her second fiat, which happens at the foot of the cross. Mary is standing at the cross, below her crucified and dying Son, letting the sword of sorrow pierce her heart. Looking at this fiat from the perspective of entering into the life of the Trinity, the essential thing isn't the crucifixion. It is the willingness of Mary to abide with God even in this place, to listen to His words even in this place of deepest sorrow.

We can let life's stresses and hardships pull us away from God. It is also easy to unthinkingly let life's many good things pull us away from God – family time, soccer games, trips, hobbies or our favorite shows. Mary's fiat is essential in all these areas. When we say, "let it be done to me according to your will," we are accepting, even before a particular hardship or blessing, the desire of God to be with us, to love us and to hold us close. His will is that we are with Him, Father, Son, Spirit. Happy Trinity Sunday!

Summer Book Groups

Summer book groups at HNOJ are back! A Good Summer Read continues this summer with two fantastic Catholic fiction classics. Register today for either (or both!) of these great summer book groups and dig into Catholic fictions you won't soon forget. To learn more and to register, go to hnoj.org/summerbook

There is no cost to attend, but all participants are asked to obtain their own copy of the book. We have a link below to make sure you get a copy of the right book. But feel free to source your copy from wherever you wish.

Catholic Movie Series

Join Holy Name of Jesus for a summer of movies! Starting in June, we will watch several of the most renowned Catholic-themed movies Hollywood has to offer. Feel free to come to one or all of these features where there will be abundant popcorn, fellowship and epic Catholic cinema based on both true and fictional stories.

There will be three different opportunities to view these great films with opportunities for discussion after. A few of them are Catholic in name and theme while others may not be explicitly Catholic but maintain many of the themes. A free-will offering is requested (roughly $10/ person). Pizza and popcorn will be provided starting at 5:30 p.m. We will watch the movie in the St. Benedict Room from 6-8:30 followed by an optional discussion at Rock Elm. Please find all the details and registration at hnoj.org/summermovies

Shoes of the Fisherman (an old Catholic classic) on Wednesday, June 19

A Quiet Place (a contemporary movie with Catholic themes) on Wednesday, July 10

The Scarlet and the Black (another old Catholic classic) on Wednesday, Aug. 14

Fr. Mike's New Appointment and Farewell Celebration

It is bittersweet to announce Fr. Mike's upcoming departure from our parish community as he sets out on a new chapter of his journey. Archbishop Hebda has entrusted him with the role of Parochial Administrator at St. Rita Catholic Church in Cottage Grove, starting July 1.

We are immensely grateful for the countless ways Fr. Mike has blessed HNOJ with his caring, priestly service, guiding families through both joyful and challenging times. During his time here, Fr. Mike has touched many lives and left a lasting impression on our community. His legal expertise has been invaluable in advancing key projects, notably our cemetery initiative. He has also been instrumental in the area of liturgy, leading our Liturgy Commission and overseeing logistical preparations. Moreover, he has been a wonderful member of the HNOJ staff and a great rectory companion, known for his warmth, understated humor and even culinary talents!

Although we will miss him dearly, this new assignment is a testament to Archbishop Hebda's confidence in Fr. Mike's leadership. Let us join in expressing our gratitude for Fr. Mike in the weeks ahead. We will have the opportunity to thank him during his final weekend at HNOJ, on June 22-23.

During this time of transition, let us pray for guidance, both for Fr. Mike as he embarks on his new role and for the priest who will follow in his footsteps at HNOJ.

Summer Hours

On Fridays during the summer months, the parish office will close at noon, beginning on Friday, June 7.

Summer Church Office Hours:
Monday-Thursday: 8 a.m.-4 p.m.
Friday: 8 a.m.-noon

No Summer Nursery

Our nursery staff and volunteers will take a break over the summer months. Our last day of nursery will be Sunday, June 2, and we will reopen on Sunday, Aug. 25.

Why Join a Small Group?

Because face time and sacred conversations with real people is a healthier, holier choice than screen time and can lead to:

- More sense of belonging and fellowship in our faith community
- More practical knowledge about the Sacred Scripture and our Catholic faith
- More intimate friendship with our Lord and more peace and joy in our day-to-day lives

The first step is to indicate what you are looking for on the form at www.hnoj.org/smallgroups or contact Tim at tlyngdal@hnoj.org to get started.

Vacation Bible School, Aug. 5-8

HNOJ is excited to announce that we have hired a VBS Coordinator for this summer. Jamie Overman, an HNOJ Faith Formation parent, will be coordinating VBS this year.

Vacation Bible School will take place Aug. 5-8 at HNOJ.

Registration and more information will be available soon at hnoj.org/vbs. Also keep watching all HNOJ media to keep in the loop on all things VBS.

Memorial Day Mass and Schedule Change

On Memorial Day we pray specifically for those who have died in our nation's wars, for their souls and the special sacrifice they made for our nation. Those brave soldiers whom we commemorate, heroically gave their lives to defend freedom, and their sacrifices are worthy of a public memorial as well as private awe. Memorial Day has also become a special time to remember all those loved ones who now live in the eternal peace of God's heavenly kingdom.

A Memorial Day Mass will be held on Monday, May 27, at 8 a.m., with a cemetery service and honors to follow. The cemetery is open for families to reflect and spend time in prayer, remembering their loved ones that have passed.

The Holy Name of Jesus Church and School offices will be closed on this day in observance of Memorial Day.

Change in Adoration Schedule

We will not have exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Monday, May 27.

Scripture of the Week

"Those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God." (Romans 8:14)

For most of us, less is known about the Holy Spirit than the other persons of the Most Holy Trinity. After all, much of the Old Testament is filled with stories of God the Father, from creation through numerous covenants and continuing with stories of the Father speaking with Moses or the prophets. And, of course, the New Testament is filled with words and deeds of Jesus. But we hear far less of the Holy Spirit.

Today's solemnity provides one of the very best explanations of the Holy Spirit that exists, especially as a follow up to last week's solemnity of Pentecost. God is a family, specifically a family of love. God the Father freely and COMPLETELY loves the Son who, in turn, receives the Father's love and returns it with His own love, freely and COMPLETELY. So complete is this eternal exchange of love, freely given and fully received, that it is named the Holy Spirit. We've been invited to live within this exchange of love, to enter into the Holy Spirit - and invite the Holy Spirit to enter into us. COMPLETELY.

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

Thank You Graduating Ushers

Holy Name of Jesus wishes to recognize the following sixteen teen ushers who are graduating in June from high school and will head off to college or other adventures later this summer.

Thank you for your years of faithful service to Holy Name of Jesus and its liturgies. Good luck to you as you embark upon your new adventures!

In Our Parish and Our Community

Senior Bingo, June 13

Seniors 55+ please join us for BINGO on Thursday, June 13, from 1-3 p.m. This is a free event! No sign up necessary. LOTS of prizes. Bring your friends!

Our senior group takes a break from big events in July and August, but we still offer our Senior Bible Study on Mondays at 10 a.m. More information at hnoj.org/seniors

Steubenville, We Still Have Spots to Fill

We are headed to Steubenville St. Paul, July 26-28.

Steubenville is a weekend-long Catholic youth conference. Music, speakers, entertainment, small groups, Eucharistic Adoration and more. (Actually, it's kinda like a weekend-long concert with friends.)

The conference is held in St. Paul, MN at the University of St. Thomas. We will be staying in dorms at the University. The conference is open to all current 8th-12th grade students. The weekend is chaperoned by staff and volunteers from HNOJ. All have been background checked and have received Virtus training.

The cost is $335 which covers the cost of the weekend, t-shirt, dorm and bus transportation. Scholarships are available. Note: no refunds can be given after May 15.

There are two steps of registration needed for this conference, due by June 19. Details are on the registration form. Teens are not registered until both parts are complete! Registration and all information may be found at hnoj.org/Steubenville.

Please contact Eve Anders at eanders@hnoj.org with questions.

IOCP 'Move In Kit' Collection, June 8-9

Let's help IOCP clients get a fresh start! The KC Auxiliary is hosting a Move In collection June 8-9. Often families moving into IOCP Neighborhood Program sites move in with limited resources. Having a 'Move In Kit' allows families to begin with a fresh start to get settled into their new home.

Collecting items such as: brooms, mops, cleaners, shower curtains, dish and laundry soap and more. Full list at hnoj.org/auxiliary

The KC Auxiliary will have a table in the Gathering Space the weekend of June 8-9 to collect these items. Let's help IOCP clients get a fresh start. For more information, contact Diane at 763-458-0676. Thank you!

Mass of Thanksgiving, June 2

Please join us on Sunday, June 2, at 10:30 a.m. as Deacon (soon to be ordained Father) Derek Gilde will offer a Mass of Thanksgiving at Holy Name of Jesus. Then please join us for a special reception for him as well as our seniors graduating in the class of 2024.

First Friday Rosary

Please join in praying the Rosary every First Friday of the month at 7:30 a.m. in the Church. Our prayers are dedicated in memory of those we loved. We continue to pray our First Friday Rosary with Mass and breakfast during the summer months as well. All are welcome. Friday, June 7, is our next Rosary.

Pampered Chef Fundraiser for Senior High Mission Trip

Let's work together to benefit the Senior High Mission Trip with this Pampered Chef Fundraiser! 30% of the sales will help to cut down the costs. Purchase $90 or more and get a FREE gift! To shop kitchen appliances, utensils and gadgets, go to pamperedchef.com/party/shmission which will be open through June 15.

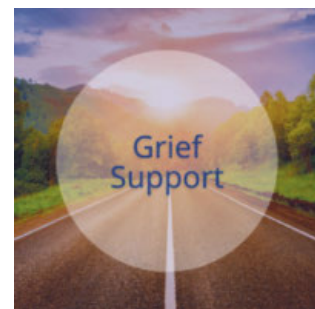

West Suburban Grief Coalition, Thursdays

The West Suburban Grief Coalition meetings are held on Thursdays from 4:30-6 p.m. There is a speaker for 30 minutes, and the remainder of time will be in breakouts for spouse loss, child loss and family loss grief discussions and healing.

From June 13 to Aug. 29, the West Suburban Grief Coalition will meet at St. Barnabas Lutheran Church in Plymouth.

Please feel free to refer new people suffering from a loss to WSGC. For more information, please contact Harley Feldman at 612-840-1774 or harleyfeldman@gmail.com.
