Shake Off the Dust

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman
©LPi

Our kitchen floor is at least 35 years old, and it's the ugliest color to come out of the '80s. But it's a good, durable floor, and my husband, bless his heart, guards it like it was a finely finished hardwood imported from Brazil.

Every time the kids track mud and sand across its vinyl surface, he immediately gets down on his hands and knees and lovingly wipes the mess away. I'm too impatient to do this myself – we have kids, so we're going to have a dirty floor, is my attitude. But this is the hill upon which my husband dies. On hands and knees, scraping dirt off an almost 40-year-old floor, he is the silent, long-suffering sentry, and if it kills him, he will keep these floors pristine. He is Gandalf, and the dirt is the Balrog. You shall not pass.

"Shake the dust off your feet." This is what Christ tells his disciples to do when they – and his word – are rejected. Shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them. Why does he say that? It's not an act of dismissal. It's not a thumbed nose or a stuck-out tongue. No, it's an act of caution: Don't bring it with you. Leave it there.

When we walk through the world, we pick up a lot of dirt. Misguided notions, disordered priorities, habits and desires that we never noticed until we realized they left a trail. We come into a situation intending to do what is right, but somehow it all goes sideways, and we walk away from it with detritus clinging to us in places we don't notice. They wouldn't listen. They'll see, we think. Oh, they'll see. They'll see how right I was. Pride and vengeance hitch a ride on the soles of our feet, and we track them all through the world.

What to do about this? You can be like me with my ugly old floor. You can shrug your shoulders and say, "It happens, I guess. I'm only human. I meant well."

But here's what would be better: be like my husband. Get down on your knees and get rid of the dirt. Stop the trail in its tracks.

"So they went off and preached repentance." – Mark 6:12

Scripture of the Week

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens as He chose us in Him, before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blemish before Him. In love He destined us for adoption to Himself through Jesus Christ, in accord with the favor of His will, for the praise of the glory of His grace that He granted us in the beloved." (Eph 1:3-6)

In our Gospel Reading today we hear about Jesus commissioning the disciples to head out and start ministering to others. Their formation in "professional ministry" was rather lacking but it is precisely in their ordinariness that Jesus knew they would be successful. Last week we heard about finding strength by surrendering our weakness to God. This, when done in faith, makes all the difference.

In our Second Reading today, St. Paul lays out the Father's "Plan of Salvation". His plan is simple - in fact, too simple for human minds to comprehend! He will adopt us - all of us. We become sisters and brothers with Jesus Himself, we become the Father's own children. We, like the disciples before us, are called as ordinary children of the Father to be Holy, not to be the wisest or the most eloquent speakers, but to be Holy. Be a child of God. Have faith. Let go of fear. Be Holy.

The first step is to indicate what you are looking for on the form at www.hnoj.org/smallgroups or contact Tim at tlngdal@hnoj.org to get started.
