Seeing Jesus in Others, Gospel Reflection

By Father John Muir

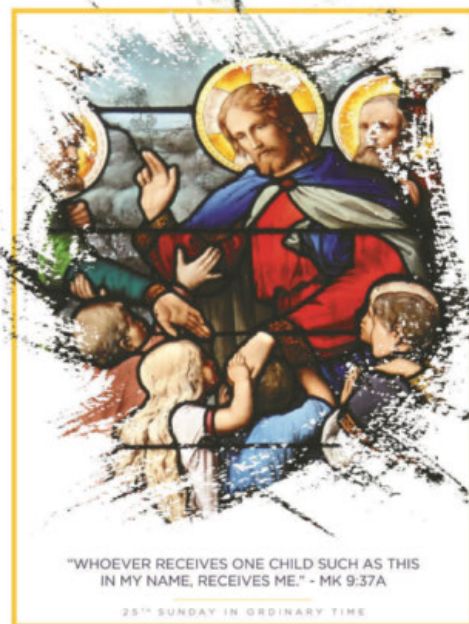

@LPi

When I was a wet-behind-the-ears seminarian, I was sent for an immersion with the poor. For one month, I lived in a home for adults with developmental disabilities. It was a challenge for me because the residents had significant communication issues. A 30-year-old man there named Robin was totally deaf and mute. He had Down's Syndrome. He looked like a Viking, with a shock of red hair and a fine beard. But I felt awkward and disconnected from him. All my normal ways of interacting failed. I resigned myself to the fact that we'd never connect.

Then one morning something amazing happened. He was on the living room floor quietly playing with toys. Watching him from a chair, I sensed Jesus' words float into my mind, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me" (Mark 9:37). I thought, "Jesus, you must somehow be in Robin." I sheepishly made sure no one else was in the room, and then I spoke in a clear voice: "Jesus, are you there?" Robin did not turn to me and say, "Hi, John. Yes, it's me, Jesus." He kept playing with his toys in silence.

But something changed in me. From that moment on, it was easier to just be with Robin, to joke around with him, to try sign-language with him, to let him be himself, and for me to be myself. His "disabilities" were no longer obstacles to overcome. He became just Robin, my friend.

Who in your life seems awkwardly distant or uncomfortable to be with? Next time you see him or her, quietly invoke the name of Jesus, and see how the barriers disappear in you.

Men's Retreat, Oct. 5

HNOJ's new Men's Retreat is a simple Saturday morning gathering where we will learn something valuable about our faith and ourselves with other guys from HNOJ. Our guest speaker will be Fr. Nathan LaLiberte with "hunger" as our theme. Come and be spiritually renewed and personally supported in being who you are when you are at your best. Small investment, big outcome.

Fr. Nathan is a gifted speaker and reflective preacher. With a particular interest in faith and psychology, Fr. Nathan presents eternal truths in just the kinds of unconventional ways that will get our attention and call us to know Jesus Christ more and more.

For what do we hunger? For what do YOU hunger?

- Is it for belonging?
- Is it for friendship?
- Is it for support in your unique walk as a single man, father, or husband?
- Is it for the nourishment of the Word, Eucharist, and the Community of Faith?

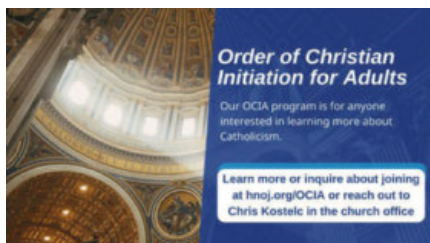

Please register today for our Saturday, Oct. 5, retreat at HNOJ from 8 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Cost for the retreat is $40 (with scholarships available), Registration may be found at hnoj.org/mensretreat24

OCIA

Not Catholic and want to learn about Catholicism?

HNOJ's OCIA program is for anyone interested in learning more about Catholicism.

People join OCIA for various reasons:

- Seeking to become Catholic
- Raised Catholic but was never Confirmed
- Getting married and want to become Catholic
- Baptized or unbaptized and want to learn about Catholicism

Learn more or inquire about joining at hnoj.org/OCIA or email Chris at ckostelc@hnoj.org.

Final Talk in the St. Paul Speaker Series

Even if you haven't been able to attend the first two talks in Fr. Wratkowski's series about St. Paul, the Apostle, you are invited to attend this Friday, Sept. 27, from 6:30-8 p.m.

It's free to attend, and there will be hospitality. Childcare for ages nine months to kindergarten is available. Please register today to reserve your spot at hnoj.org/stpaulseries

Small Groups at HNOJ

Jesus started his universal church in a small group, so we are adopting the same strategy at HNOJ.

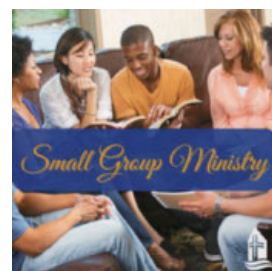

While we are blessed with a very large, dynamic parish, it can be overwhelming to find close connections and friendships and to think "I'm just another number."

You're NOT just another number.

Whether you are new to the parish or not, we can help you get started.

- Meet people with similar interests at HNOJ
- Develop authentic friendships and a support group
- Deepen your personal relationship with Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ

Our groups have just started and it's not too late to join! Find out more details at hnoj.org/smallgroups or email Tim Lyndal today at tlyngdal@hnoj.org.

Small Group Leaders Needed

We are looking for people to lead small groups this fall. Don't worry, we have training!

Please join us for our small group leader trainings (Chipotle meal provided too) on Sunday, Sept. 29, from 12-3 p.m.

Attending the session will help prepare you to lead your very own small group. You will become versed in the seven-step method, learn how to manage a group through the different challenges that arise and ultimately lead with grace and joy in what Archbishop Hebda has called the "key to growth" in the local Catholic Church.

For any questions, you can contact Tim Lyngdal at tlyngdal@hnoj.org. Please register at hnoj.org/smallgroupministry

Communion Outreach

If you or someone you know is homebound in our parish area and would like Communion brought to them, please contact Maureen Laird-Hayes at mymontanamo@gmail.com or 612-723-7001. At Holy Name of Jesus it is our joy and honor to be able to provide this ministry through our Communion Outreach Team.

Priesthood Sunday, Sept. 29

Priesthood Sunday is a nationwide celebration in recognition of the generosity of ordained priests and an invitation to the laity to share in praying for and thanking every priest for their "Yes" to being a priest. Priesthood Sunday is sponsored by Serra International; a unique organization of lay people founded to promote and support priests, deacons and consecrated religious men and women serving the Catholic Church.

Think of the priests you have encountered in your life. Please say a prayer for those priests thanking our Lord God for the gift they have been to you.

Scripture of the Week

"You ask but do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions." (James 4:3)

Our Gospel today continues where last week's left off. Jesus continues to teach His disciples about what His fate will be. While the disciples understand Jesus as the Son of God, true Son of true God, they are struggling to understand His predictions of His death - after all, by human wisdom and logic, how can God die? So instead, they begin to discuss which of them is the most important.

Clearly, they have missed the point. Jesus teaches them about being servant first. He teaches about the importance of accepting others, even to honor children and to receive them into their midst. And then He drops a bombshell that we struggle to understand even today. By receiving one of God's children, we receive Jesus Himself, and when we receive Jesus we receive God the Father as well. Not because they are the same but because they are One.

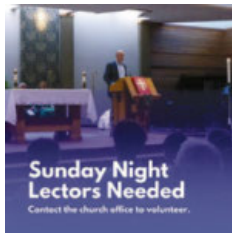

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

Sunday Night Lectors Needed

We are in need of volunteers to help proclaim the readings at Mass especially the Sunday evening Mass. This is a vital part of our Mass and if God is calling you to this ministry, please consider signing up.

Lectors are scheduled for the Mass time(s) that they are available and there is rehearsal the Monday night before you lector.

If you are interested and 16 years or older, please contact Jan at the church office at 763-473-7901 or jstumpf@hnoj.org.
