Gospel Reflection

By Fr. John Muir @LPI

From a young age, I loved winning at sports. I confess that winning was a bit of an addiction. It was probably coming from a deep desire for attention and affirmation from others. Nevertheless, it was a driving motivation for me. Baseball, soccer, track, table tennis and whatever else I could find was a chance to win. Competition was my obsession.

Another John, and his brother, James, demonstrate a kind of wildly competitive obsession when they dare to say to Jesus: “Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory” (Mark 10:37). Their audacity arouses an indigent reaction from the other apostles, who are clearly raw that these two are out to win the highest spots.

How does Jesus respond to us in our desires for greatness? The same way He does to James and John. He does not criticize them for their desire for glory. But He does highlight their ignorance (“you do not know what you are asking”). Then He invites them to be champions of true greatness: by drinking not the cup of worldly victory, but His cup of self-giving suffering love, to be the “slave of all.” The true winners are slaves of love. This week, dare to tell Jesus what your ambitions truly are. Hear Him call you to an even greater victory.

Questions of the Week:

First Reading:

The prophet Isaiah sees how suffering can have a positive outcome. How do you help family members or friends who are struggling?

Second Reading:

The author of Hebrews encourages us to be confident in asking for “timely help” from the Lord. In what ways do you need the Lord’s help today?

Gospel:

Jesus teaches James and John that humility and service to others is what defines greatness in the kingdom of God. How might you be of service to a friend or co-worker this week?

Called to Communion

Last weekend was our Stewardship Invitation Weekend in which Paul and Tia Go shared their wonderful testimony, "When we put God first, He has filled us with so many blessings." Putting God first in everything we do is the essence of the Christian life. Whether you're renewing your annual commitment or getting involved for the first time, this is our moment to embrace the call to love God and our neighbor with all our heart, mind and strength.

All parishioners should have received a stewardship packet in the mail. If you already completed your form, thank you! If you haven't yet, there are extras in the Gathering Space. You can turn in your commitment form in the collection plate, drop it off at the front office or fill it out online at hnoj.org/stewardship2024

Thank you for being part of this journey together.

Baby Blessing for Expectant Mothers, Oct. 27

Expectant mothers will be recognized and their babies blessed on Sunday, Oct. 27, during the 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. Masses. Father will say a rite of blessing for the expectant mother and preborn child. Please join us for Mass Sunday morning with your families for this special blessing in this Respect Life Month. Please invite expectant moms to these Masses!

Children's Holy Hour, Nov. 1

Families of HNOJ, come together for a great hour of family formation on the first Friday of each month. Parents and children, please join us on Friday, Nov. 1, from 4-5 p.m. where we will discuss All Saints and have time for Eucharistic Adoration. On Nov. 1, have kids dress as a saint!

More information at www.hnoj.org/FamilyHolyHour. Please sign up online so we can get a count for the activity.

Veteran's Day Mass, Nov. 6

Please join the students and staff of Holy Name of Jesus School in honoring our past and present service members during the Veterans Day School Mass on Wednesday, Nov. 6, at 9 a.m.

Service members, please line up at 8:45 a.m. to be part of the procession and ceremony. All service members are invited to dress in uniform.

All Saints' Day, Nov. 1

We celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints on Friday, Nov. 1, where we honor all of the holy men and women who have gone before us and ask for their intercession.

Masses for this Holy Day of Obligation are as follows: 6:30 a.m., 8 a.m., 9:15 a.m. (school Mass) and 6 p.m.

Mass of Remembrance, Nov. 2

Please join us to recognize the recently deceased in our faith community, and to honor all of our dead at the Mass of Remembrance on Saturday, Nov. 2, at 10 a.m. The Mass is open to all, but we particularly welcome those who have lost a loved one during the past year, as well as those who have lost a loved one at any time, including children lost through miscarriage, stillbirth or abortion. All are welcome. Hospitality to follow.

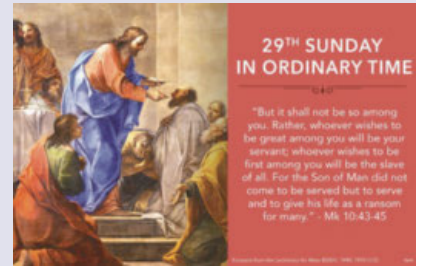

Scripture of the Week

“Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession.” (Hebrews 4:14)

In our First Reading from Isaiah, we hear one of the four passages referring to “The Servant of the Lord.” In these passages the early church found prophesies that were realized in the life of Jesus.

This “Suffering Servant” theme is built upon throughout Isaiah. Our Psalm encourages us to trust in the Lord’s mercy and our Second Reading from Hebrews recognizes Jesus as our great high priest, a view of our promise because of the suffering servant.

That promise becomes real in our passage from Hebrews, pointing out that Jesus is perfectly able to sympathize with us, being fully human and fully tested, and still conquering. Indeed this reading calls us to approach His throne to receive mercy and grace. The last lines of our Gospel this week ties it all together – to be first, be the slave of others – serve, just as He served.

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

Hurricane Relief, Special Collection

Archbishop Bernard Hebda has asked all parishes in the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis to take up special collection to provide emergency support to those suffering from the effects of Hurricanes Helene and Milton.

In late September, Hurricane Helene tore through communities in Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Tennessee. It left a devastating toll in its wake, with more than 200 dead and hundreds still missing. The storm washed away homes and highways and decimated power and water systems. This has been followed by Hurricane Milton slamming the gulf coast of Florida bringing further damage.

This crisis offers us an opportunity to stand in solidarity of prayer and give what we can to bring relief to those who are suffering from this crisis. The funds collected in this special appeal for Hurricane Relief will be sent to Catholic Charities USA, the US Catholic relief agency, to provide immediate disaster relief with necessities such as water, food and shelter. They will stand by their communities through the long-term recovery. They will also be used to provide for the pastoral and social needs of the Church as they reach out to those displaced by the disaster.

Please make checks out to HNOJ with hurricane relief in the memo, or you can give online at hnoj.org/online-donations and select the emergency appeal for hurricane relief (see QR code on graphic). Thank you for your generosity.
