Recognizing God in Everyday Moments

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman | @LPI

"It's not the end of the world."

If I had a brick for every time my mother said this to me growing up, I could have built a castle. One that comes complete with a moat whose bridge I could dramatically pull up so I could sulk, in the window of the highest turret, sighing
loudly so every passerby would know how I suffered.

Because sometimes we act like it's the end of the world – whether we are a little kid angered by a playground snub, a teenage girl flipping out over an assignment for English class or a college student distraught that she got scheduled for four opening shifts in a row at the coffee house where she works (yes, these are all examples taken straight from my life, why do you ask?).

And sometimes, it really does seem like the end of the world. We lose someone we love to cancer. We miscarry a child before we even get to see his tiny face.
The rent is due, and the bank account is overdrawn (also all examples taken straight from my life).

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that when the sun is darkened and the moon no longer gives light, we must look for Him, because His time is near.

He's talking about The End of the World. The big one, the apocalypse. But why do I think He's also talking about the end of the world – those sufferings large and small, real and imagined, that make us feel like the sky is caving in?

In both instances, He draws near to us. So let us look for Him.

Prayer of Seasons

*As the seasons change, be with me.
As my life shifts and shapes, be with me.
As I face what the future holds, be with me.
As I seek the beauty to be found today, help me to find you there.
Amen.*

Science and Religion Series, Nov. 19

Please join us for part two of three on Tuesday, Nov. 19, from 6:30-8 p.m. for Science and the Shroud with Jon Hickman.

The Shroud of Turin has been in and out of the popular imagination for many years. Is it real? What can we believe to be true about it? Jon Hickman will use the shroud as an entry point into a conversation about the relationship between science and religion.

Mark your calendars for Nov. 26 - Medicine and Belief with Dr. Jessica Jarnot. In a culture where it seems like people put more faith in science and medicine than they do in religion and God, how is a Catholic to understand medicine, health, life and death? What considerations come into play when someone gets a life changing or terminal diagnosis? Where is God in the people's lives when facing significant medical treatment?

There is no cost to attend. Please register online at hnoj.org/science

Middle School Retreat Registration is Open

We are very excited to offer a middle school retreat to our 6th-8th grade students.

What's the goal of Luke 18? To empower middle school teens to live as disciples of Jesus Christ today. How? No gimmicks, real faith sharing, fun talks, great small groups, authentic relationships and an entire weekend for and with middle school teens.

Our retreat runs Dec. 13-14, at HNOJ. On Friday, Dec. 13, the retreat will run 6:30-10 p.m. All participants will go home to sleep and return in the morning. On Saturday, Dec. 14, the retreat will continue at 9 a.m. and officially end at 8:30 p.m. with Adoration. The cost is $75.

Registration may be found at hnoj.org/luke18. For questions, please contact Luke Klavins at lklavins@hnoj.org.

Spots Open in HNOJ's Zoom Small Group!

Participate from home or even out of state. You can check out their group page at <https://archspm.groupvitals.com/groupfinder/profile/70150> or email Susan for inquiries and information at 53susanmarie@gmail.com.

November Book of Remembrance

During the month of November, we are called to remember and pray for those who have passed away and one of the ways that we do that is by listing them in a book for the dead. Holy Name of Jesus' Book of Remembrance can be found on the Gathering Space stand next to the church doors. Please add your loved ones' names to the book and they will be prayed for in a special way during the month of November.

Thanksgiving Day Mass

Thanksgiving Day Mass will be on Thursday, Nov. 28, at 8 a.m. (Please note the earlier time this year). What a great way to start off your day of gratitude. The church and school offices will be closed on Nov. 28-29.

Soul Sisters (Widowed, Divorced/Annulled or Single Women)

Are you a woman navigating the journey of widowhood, divorce/annulment or single life? You are cordially invited to join our supportive and faith-filled community. We will come together monthly to grow in our Catholic faith by supporting one another through friendship, prayer, personal growth and service.

Whether you are looking for spiritual growth, lasting friendships or simply a place to feel you belong...you are welcome! For more information, please contact Susan DeJute at 612-801-7546, and join us at our "Welcome and Thanksgiving" first meeting on Thursday, Nov. 21, from 4:30 -7 p.m. in the Good Samaritan Center. Dinner ($10 cost) will be served. Please sign up at the welcome desk.

KC Auxiliary Bake Sale, Next Weekend

Stop by the KC Auxiliary bake sale after all the Masses next weekend and stock up on delicious treats for the entire holiday season. Many items freeze well for enjoyment in weeks to come, too. Donations of baked goods for the bake sale are also welcome if you have a specialty you would like to share.

The KC Auxiliary has planned this event to raise funds for the IOCP food shelf. Families who shop at the food shelf are getting ready to celebrate Thanksgiving, too, so the need is great at this time of year.

Communion Procession Update

Beginning on Sunday, Dec. 1, the Eucharistic minister(s) distributing at the back of the church will move to the front and distribute Holy Communion to the main section alongside the priest(s). Thus, instead of having two processions moving in opposite directions for the middle sections, all will process together toward the altar. To accommodate those with limited mobility, our extraordinary ministers are trained to bring the Eucharist to them once they have finished distributing to their sections.

We hope the disruption will be only minimal as we get used to this change. At the same time, how good it will be for us to approach the Lord in unity, together, TOWARD His altar, a sign of His pilgrim people journeying toward our heavenly homeland.

Stay tuned for more information about the meaning behind this change in the December newsletter.

Final Training Date for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Nov. 23

All current and new EMHC's (Eucharistic Ministers) are asked to attend one training session this fall. Due to changes in our scheduling process and the practicals of distribution, as well as different station locations, we are asking all Eucharistic Ministers to attend this training. The training will cover both new and existing procedures. As always, thank you for your willingness to serve the Lord and the community of HNOJ in this ministry. For questions, please contact Caitlyn Rosendahl at cbrosendahl@gmail.com.

One final training session left on:
Saturday, Nov. 23, from 3:30-4:45 p.m.

Scripture of the Week

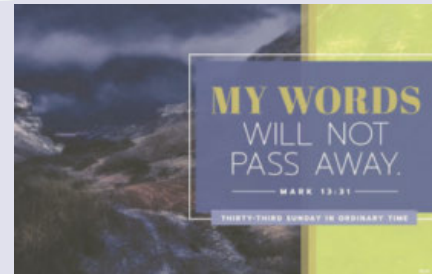

*"... the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky..."
(Mark 13:24b-25a)*

Today marks our second to the last Sunday of the Church's yearly calendar. Our Gospel today has Jesus telling His disciples to prepare for dark days ahead - indeed, the sun, moon and stars will even cease to provide their light. This sense of impending darkness is both metaphorically telling as we enter the darkest days of our yearly trip around the sun as well as Scripturally as Jesus in Mark's Gospel has finally come back to Jerusalem with His disciples. It is the nearing the end of the calendar year, the end of the Church year, and, for Jesus, nearing the end of His public ministry and earthly life.

But Jesus does not leave us abandoned or hopeless. We know that after His Resurrection and Ascension He will send the Holy Spirit, but even here He makes sure to remind the disciples that His words will not pass away. His words are not "lip service" to some grand ideal. They are Spirit and Truth. Amazing hope indeed!

Weekly reflections by parishioner Jon Hickman.

Interfaith Outreach Weekend, Nov. 23-24

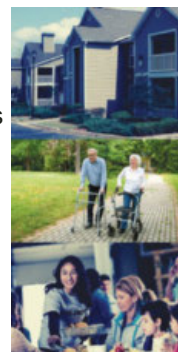

If you and your family have been blessed, please consider sharing those blessings with the poor and homeless among us. After all, as Jesus says in that passage from Matthew: "...whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me."

Holy Name of Jesus will take up a second collection for Interfaith Outreach on Nov. 23-24, to support their efforts for their annual Sleep Out. Please write checks out to Holy Name of Jesus with IOCP in the memo. You can go to hnoj.org/interfaith2ndcollection to learn more or give online.

With your help, in fiscal year 2024, IOCP reported the following:

- Our food shelf distributed 825,604 pounds of food and goods to 1,036 households. We also expanded evening hours to make the food shelf more accessible.
- Our Resale Select thrift store continued to make specific items available to clients free of charge. In fiscal year 2024, 299 households were provided with basic needs items - such as winter coats or new socks and undergarments.
- To improve clients' experience from the very beginning of their IOCP journey, we began making changes to our intake process. This included shortening response times, standardizing workflows and adding multilingual staff to our Client Intake and Referrals team.

Thank you for your generous support of our neighbors in need!

Interfaith Outreach Second Collection Nov. 23-24

*And the king will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me.'
Matthew 25:40*

Please make checks out to Holy Name of Jesus with IOCP in the memo, or give online at hnoj.org/give and select IOCP Second Collection.

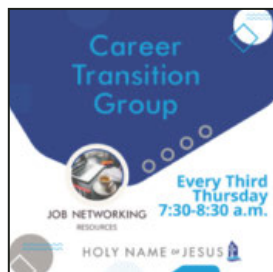

In Our Parish and Our Community

Career Transitions Group

Thursday, Nov. 21, from 7:30- 8:30 a.m.

Most of us have been unemployed, in between jobs or interested in career development opportunities at some point in our lives. The Holy Name of Jesus Career Transition Group meets people where they are at. We provide a variety of tools, resources and support to help people navigate through whatever stage they're currently in.

The Career Transition Group meets the third Thursday of each month. Information about the Career Transition Group and how you can become involved can be found at hnoj.org/career-transition-group

Blankets Needed for Mary's Place

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ "... to bring glad tidings to the poor ... liberty to captives ... sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

The belief that those who are directly affected by unjust systems and structures have the best insight into knowing how to change them is central to CCHD. CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out.

Our collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development is this weekend, Nov. 16-17. Please find envelopes in your packets. Thank you for your generosity.

Donuts with Santa, Dec. 7

The stage will be set and your family will have a chance to visit Santa and Mrs. Claus, share Christmas wishes, get a family photo and enjoy donuts. Children can leave a letter for Santa in our special North Pole mail box.

Registration for this free event is open at hnoj.org/donutswithsanta. This event is held at HNOJ and is open to the parish and sponsored by HNOJ School. Please sign up for a family time slot between 9-11:30 a.m.

Families will also enjoy a book fair by PaperPie so you can get some last minute Christmas shopping done. And we will be collecting toy donations for Toys for Tots.

Called to Communion

Whether it's through prayer, volunteering your time or making a financial contribution, your involvement is a vital part of our mission.

Our goal is simple: to Know the heart of Christ, See the face of Christ and Be the hands of Christ. When we put God first, generosity flows naturally.

Every gift, no matter how big or small, helps us grow in love and service. By returning your commitment form by Nov. 30, you are helping to create and sustain an incredible faith community at Holy Name of Jesus. If you've already submitted it - thank you! Your support helps us plan for the year ahead, and your commitment remains completely confidential.

You can turn in your commitment form in the collection plate, drop it off at the front office or fill it out online at hnoj.org/stewardship2024

You Can Advertise in the Bulletin!

Gina Shaughnessy, our parish representative from LPi, is setting up the advertising for our weekly bulletin. We hope that parishioners who have a business will consider sponsoring an ad, since the revenue from the ads is what makes the bulletin possible, at no cost to the parish. Also, if you know of any other business in the community that would like to support the parish, please let them know about this opportunity.

Advertisements can be purchased for a business, family or a sponsorship ad can be purchased supporting community service organizations such as emergency pregnancy counseling, the local food shelf, etc. Please give these ideas some thought. We need and appreciate your help!

If you are interested in getting more information, please call Gina Shaughnessy at 952-356-6488.

Fifth Annual Christkindmarkt

Come join us the Saturday after Thanksgiving and experience an old-world style Christkindmarkt (Christmas market) festival on Saturday, Nov. 30, from 12-8 p.m. at Ss. Peter and Paul Parish in Loretto.

We'll have live entertainment each hour featuring performances by the Basement Brass Band, Trillium Flute Choir, Westwind Big Band and the Delano Community Band. We'll have many local vendors, a Bavarian Grill, Café Vienna with specialty cakes and coffees, free kids' crafts and games, a silent auction, a snack shack featuring German specialties along with gluhwein, beer and soft drinks and St. Nicholas! For more information, please check out our website at www.sspap.org. See you there!
